The Faculty of Southeast Asian Studies, Center for Asian Research, Arizona State University and the Center for Lao Studies are pleased to announce the Second International Conference on Lao Studies (ICLS) to be held on Thursday-Sunday, May 3-6, 2007 in Tempe, Arizona, USA. The main objective of this conference is to provide an international forum for scholars to present and discuss various aspects of Lao Studies.

The 2007 conference will feature papers on any topic concerning Lao Studies. Topics may cover all ethnolinguistic groups of Laos (e.g. Mon-Khmer, Tibeto-Burman, Hmong-Mien, Lao-Tai), the Isan Lao and other Lao (Tai) groups in Thailand, cross-border ethnic groups in neighboring countries and overseas diaspora heritage groups. We welcome both proposals for panels and abstracts for individual papers on a wide range of interests including history, development and planning, environment, classical literatures, linguistics, music, sports, health, religion, ethnic groups, media and art history.

Exhibits and a cultural performance will be among the activities held during the conference.
